I. Introduction

Hornbill is a larger than average primary school opened in September 2003. It provides for Nepali children of Gurkha soldiers and children of British military and civilian Ministry of Defence personnel. The percentage of pupils for whom English is an additional language (EAL) is very high at over 71%. Many of these are in the early stages of learning English. There are no pupils with statements of special educational need in the school. In common with service schools everywhere, staff and pupils join and leave the school at a much higher rate than is usual.

2. About the Policy

This race equality policy enables our school to meet our statutory obligations under the Race Relations Amendment Act (2000). Through this policy the school is working in line with the Commission for Racial Equality Standards Learning for All (2000) and working towards meeting the recommendations of The Stephen Lawrence Inquiry (2000).

This policy sets out our commitment to tackling racial discrimination and promoting equality of opportunity and good race relations, and explains what this means for the whole school community.

At Hornbill School we will continuously strive to ensure that everyone in our school is treated with respect and dignity. Each person in our school will be given fair and equal opportunities to develop their full potential with positive regard to gender, ethnicity, cultural and religious background, sexuality or disability.

We will actively promote race equality and oppose racism in all its forms and foster positive attitudes and commitment to an education for equality.

We aim to achieve this by:

- Taking active measures to investigate, report and act on incidents of racial abuse
- Treating all those within the whole school community (e.g. pupils, staff, governors, parents and community) as individuals with their own particular abilities, beliefs, challenges, attitudes, background and experiences
- Creating a school ethos which promotes race equality, develops understanding and challenges myths, stereotypes, misconceptions and prejudices.
- Encouraging everyone within our school community to gain a positive self-image and high self-esteem.
- Having high expectations of everyone involved with the whole school
- Identifying and removing all practices, procedures and customs which are discriminatory and replacing them with practices which are fair to all.
- Promoting mutual respect and valuing each other's similarities and differences and facing equality issues openly.
- Monitoring, evaluating and reviewing all of the above to secure continuous improvement in all that we do
- Working with HQ Brunei Garrison in reducing the number of racially motivated incidents.

3. Roles and responsibilities

This race equality policy outlines the roles and responsibilities of everyone involved and connected with the school, so that each individual knows what is expected of them. Promoting race equality and raising the achievement of minority ethnic pupils is the responsibility of the whole school staff, including support staff.

Introduction to this race equality policy and action plan will be included in induction arrangements for all new staff to the school. School induction procedures will highlight the duties implied by this policy in the same way as child protection, health and safety and behaviour policies form part of the induction process.

3.1 SGC

The SGC of the school has agreed this policy and will:

- Assess and monitor the impact of this policy by reviewing the inclusion SIP
- Receive progress reports from the head teacher and other school staff on a termly basis, as part of- the head teacher's report to governors.
- Return statistical information to SCE

One member of SGC will have responsibility for monitoring this policy, acting as the designated governor for race equality.

The Inclusion Leader will be a teacher in the school who is involved in action planning and policy development and monitoring and evaluation. The role will also include keeping up to date with current thinking, being familiar with literature and resources, attending appropriate training courses and feeding back to colleagues.

3.4 Subject Leader

Other subject leaders will be responsible for reviewing and monitoring curriculum policies and planning in their own subject areas to ensure that race equality is promoted.

3.5 Teachers

Teachers will familiarise themselves with this policy and know what their responsibilities are to ensure that the action plan is implemented. They will know the implications of the policy for their planning, teaching and learning strategies as well as for behavioural issues.

4. Complaints procedure

If anyone in the school feels that this policy is not being followed then they should raise the matter with the Headteacher who will facilitate the appropriate action, which may include an investigation and report on the issue. If there is a formal complaint then the school's complaints procedure will be used.

 - ask why these differences exist and test the explanations given;
 - review the effectiveness of current targets and objectives;
 - decide what further action will be necessary to meet particular needs and to improve the performance of pupils from different ethnic groups (which might include positive action);
